Day 8: Guided Medina Tour in Essaouira & Afternoon Surfing Class

This morning, join your local guide for a medina tour of Essaouira. With its vibrant culture and stunning architecture, Essaouira is a must-see destination for any traveler. Known for its historic medina, it offers a unique glimpse into Morocco's rich history. The medina is a UNESCO World Heritage site, and is home to some of the most beautifully preserved architecture in the country. Take a stroll through the narrow streets, and you'll find yourself transported back in time. But Essaouira isn't just about history - it's also a hub for contemporary art and music. The city has a thriving music scene, with festivals and concerts happening throughout the year. From the Gnawa World Music Festival to the Essaouira Gnaoua and World Music Festival, there's always something exciting happening in the city.

This afternoon, we've arranged a family surfing classes that is designed to be fun and safe for all ages. Our experienced instructors will guide you through the basics of surfing, from paddling out to catching your first wave. Day 9: Transfer to Agafay Desert, ATV Riding & Sunset Camel Riding

This morning, depart Essaouira and head to the Agafay Desert. This desert a hidden gem tucked away just a stone's throw from Marrakech, Morocco. Despite its rocky terrain, this desert is full of stunning scenery and unique experiences that make it a must-see destination for travelers. The Agafay Desert is often called the "desert of Marrakech" because of its proximity to the city. Unlike traditional deserts, the Agafay is composed of rugged hills and rocky outcroppings rather than endless sand dunes. This gives the landscape a unique aesthetic that is both rugged and beautiful.

In the afternoon, buckle up for a fun ATV ride after a safety briefing by your guide. This is a great way to explore the desert at your own pace, with the wind in your hair and the sun on your face. You'll be able to zip through the rocky terrain and experience the thrill of off-roading in a unique and stunning setting.

Of course, a visit to any desert is not complete without a sunset camel ride. Although the Agafay Desert does not have sand dunes, a camel ride offers stunning views of the golden sun setting on the rocky hills. Return to the camp for a unique Moroccan dinner under the stars with camp fires and authentic Moroccan entertainment.
